Biography

Ron Smith is the Chairman of the Lancaster Planning Commission and Chairman of the 36th Assembly District Central Committee Republican Party of Los Angeles County. Smith is very involved in the community. Last year Smith was instrumental in securing the passage of a $139 million bond for the Antelope Valley College. This year he was the chairman for the American Heroes Dinner, which raised more than $80,000 for the Antelope Valley Boy Scouts. Smith was also one of the event chairs for Governor Schwarzenegger's dinner at the Antelope Valley Fairgrounds.

Smith moved to the Antelope Valley with his family in 1987. He served on the Los Angeles County Sheriff's department for 16 years, 13 years in the Antelope Valley. He currently owns a graphic design business and is an adjunct faculty member at Antelope Valley College where he is an elected member of the Academic Senate. Smith holds degrees in art and biology, and has graduate studies in law, education, and graphic design.

Smith is also chairman of Citizens for a Safer Community, co-chairman of the Antelope Valley Crime Task Force, and a member of the California Republican Party Central Committee.
